Circular No.26/VI/2016

September 2, 2016

To

ALL UNITS / STATE COMMITTEES

Dear comrades,

15 CRORE WORKING PEOPLE ECHO THE VOICE OF DISSENT.
NON-RESPONSIVENESS OF THE GOVERNMENT TO THE DEMANDS
AIBOA OFFICERS IDENTIFY WITH THE STRIKING PEOPLE

* * * * *

It was exactly a year back, we observed the strike, demanding the welfare of the Nation and also for the workers, who are contributors to build our Nation to this level during the last 69 years. Though a committee was constituted by the present government, who are votaries of Private sector in all walks life, failed to address the issues covering our Industry.

1. Ensure Employment
2. Assure Jobs and Jobs security.
3. Enhance Minimum Wages to Rs. 18000/-
4. Withdraw retrograde Labour Laws.
5. Honour ILO Resolutions.
6. Enact effective Laws to Recover the Loans from Defaulters.
7. Expand Public Sector Banking.
8. Arrest the revisiting of East India Company in the guise of FDI in Defence, Railways, Insurance, and Banking.

The reports are flowing in full measure that the voice of dissent of the 15 crore people has reflected in the form of total observance of the strike throughout the country. Our Sector, the nerve centre of economic activities, has once again proved its performance. AIBOA and AIBEA along with like-minded trade unions in our Industry, visualising the subtle attacks, were repeatedly placed to prepare collectively to halt the attack of the Government right from April 13, 2016. There are some unions coming under the pressures of the Government management combine, as usual, demonstrated their helplessness to identify with the struggling people.

The seething anger of the garment workers of Bengaluru should be an eyew opener to the Government. In the name of reforms, the best practices followed in our nation is substituted to facilitate Private and Corporates to gain the control of the wealth of the Nation. Hence the struggle of ours is to preserve the Nation, Nation Building Instruments through Public Sector Institutions, and also the rights won through the various struggles are to be preserved for a better tomorrow for the GENNEXT.

MARCH ON OFFICERS OF ABOA ALONG WITH AIBEA
IN DEFENDING THE ECONOMIC SOVERIGNTY OF OUR NATION
HATS OFF TO YOUR
CONVICTION, COMMITMENT AND CONVERGENCE OF PATRIOTIC FERVOUR

Yours Comradely,
