The efforts to stonewall our participation till the penultimate day of signing the Joint Note by our adversaries were blown off. The negative inputs in giving a true reflection of the feelings were explained in detail viz., five days week and monetization of LTC on the lines of SBI scheme.

The communication addressed by Com. Alok Khare, Chairman was placed to the committee for the better understandings of the developments and also the unfinished agenda of important in content and nature pending for the execution

In all 22 participants spoke on the joint note making valid inputs to be taken up with IBA for necessary clarifications.

8. ORGANISATION:

7 Participants spoke on the organization and reiterated the necessity of shifting our focus on developing the membership in the respective banks through effective campaigning. The representative from the Nainital Bank Officers' Association Com Praven Rabat presented his organizational viewpoint and sought the wholehearted support of AIBOA in extending support to the agitation call observed in stages likely to culminate in direct action. Our affiliate has demanded from the parent bank Bank of Baroda, which is holding 98.57% of the equity holding should merge the subsidiary – Nainital Bank Ltd with them. It was unanimously decided to extend all support to the comrades who have plunged into agitation to achieve their demand of merger with Bank of Baroda.

The CC had the benefit of the development in almost all banks. The sufferings of the officers in the matter of discharging their daily routine and also unleashing of attacks in different ways to curb the benefits otherwise eligible to be granted to them in one form or other. The CC decided to initiate the appropriate steps to reverse the same by taking up with the bank managements through our affiliates.

The first day session came to an end at 7.40 pm.
