10. SECOND DAY PROCEEDINGS:

There was a brief discussion by the Secretariat members on bye law amendments prior to the commencement of the session on bye laws, organizational issue, and clearance of subscriptions and wage revision levy to State Committees and AIBOA by the affiliated units.

It was presented before the house the decision of the Secretariat on amendments bye laws.

- a. The representation to the conference will be through State Committees.
- b. The subscription payable by the affiliates will be Rs 160.00 to AIBOA which will be shared in equal proportion between the State Committees and Central office of the AIBOA.

- c. One delegate for every 20 members with a maximum of 75 delegates from the State Committees to the National Conference.
- d. The number of office bearers of AIBOA suggested needs to be discussed further.

The above amendments are subject to the approval of the ensuing National Conference.

11. POWER POINT PRESENTATION OF COD SURVEY.

Com. Gaurav Goyal, member of wage revision committee presented the responses received from the members in a lucid style for the benefit of the cc members. Though the sample survey covers a small segment, but the views of the CC members were perfectly matching with findings of the COD survey.

The house appreciated the efforts put in by Com. Gaurav Goyal and Com. Avinash Anand in drawing the plan and final submission to the CC.

12. CLEARANCE OF WAGE REVISION LEVY AND SUBSCRIPTIONS:

The decision was informed that the units which had not collected the levy through Check off system should remit Rs.1000.00 to be shared between AIBOA and State Committees equally and also the subscriptions up to 2021 should be cleared within a weeks' time without any exception.

Wherever the amount have been collected based on our mandate by the affiliates the portion of 50% should be remitted to Central office with the list of members of the state committees for onward transmission of the remittance.

13. ARRANGEMENTS FOR HOLDING 8TH NATIONAL CONFERENCE:

Com. Vinod Sharma, Joint Secretary, AIBOA, who had accepted the responsibility to host the conference at Chandigarh presented the arrangements made by the team members of AIBOA, PSC and Haryana State Committee for the benefit of the participants. The newly elected principal Office Bearers of AIBOA Punjab State Committee welcomed the participants for the conference.

Com V Ramabhadran, Secretary AIBOA, presented the preliminary arrangements already made after a visit to Chandigarh on July 01 to 04th and the modalities of the delegate fee and accommodation charges were informed viz., Rs 2000 per delegate & observer, and Rs 1300 per member per day for hotel accommodation for the period of stay to be remitted to the host committee with details of participants at the earliest possible. The representatives of the state committees provided the number of delegates to the host committee. The details for the remittance to be made to the state committee was also handed over to the participants. The committee unanimously approved an advance payment of Rs 18 lacs to the reception committee for taking forward the arrangements in full stream.

14. ANY OTHER MATTER WITH THE PERMISSION OF THE CHAIR:

The participants shared their concern on men and matters of the individual units as well as the approach of an affiliate in the matter of conducting their state committee conferences at UP, Haryana and Punjab. They have also concurred that approaching the outside authorities in the matter of internal expressions of dissatisfaction was not in the organizational discipline.

The efforts of the UCO unit was explained in detail by Com Deep Prakash Rawat for the benefit of the participants.

The required clarifications were also given by the General Secretary. Thus the issues listed in the agenda were completed at 14.30 hrs.

The past office-bearers of our organization will be felicitated in our conference and the expenses will be borne by the Central Office.

Team AIBOA UP State Committee deserves deep appreciation

During the organizational life of nearly four decades plus, it was the first time that UP State Committee facilitated in holding this Central Committee, participated by 15 State Committees and 12 affiliated units. It was highly impressive with regard to the ambience provided and also arrangements made to present the COD survey with minimum time lag. They have presented a memento to all the participants. The CC recorded its appreciation.

ONWARD MARCH TO 8th NATIONAL CONFERENCE AT CHANDIGARH

Yours comradely
